1. ABC for Health, Inc.

Brynne McBride
32 N. Bassett St.
Madison, WI 53703
(608) 261-6939 x 210
fax: (608) 261-6938
www.abcforhealth.org

Advocacy and Benefits Counseling for Health is a Wisconsin-based nonprofit public interest law firm dedicated to ensuring health care access for children and families, particularly those with special needs or who are at risk. ABC for Health's mission is to provide health care consumers with the information, advocacy tools, legal services, and expert support they need to navigate through America's complex and confusing health care financing system. ABC for Health, Inc. would like to find pro bono attorneys for consultation on litigated cases.

2. Access Community Health

Nicole Lewis
2202 S. Park St.
Madison, WI 53713
(608) 443-5480

MCHC provides medical and dental services to low-income persons unable to afford health care. It has used pro bono legal services in the past and is currently using some services.

3. Access to Independence

Tracy Miller

Madison, WI 53703
(608) 242-8484 x 227
fax: (608) 242-0383
tracym@accesstoind.org

Access to Independence receives over 1500 information and referral calls from people with disabilities who often are low or moderate income. AI tries to refer them to affordable legal services but knows there is a greater need than those resources can handle. They have referred many clients to pro bono attorneys and have used Pro Bono Trust Fund money to train attorneys to better serve clients with disabilities. There is a significant need for more attorneys to take cases from AI, especially attorneys to represent the deaf and hard of hearing.

4. The Adjutant General's Office

Miguel Flores

fax: (608) 284-2134
peterb@abuseintervention.org
www.abuseintervention.org

Domestic Abuse Intervention Service's (DAIS) mission is to empower those affected by domestic violence and advocate for social change through support, education, and outreach. Lawyers can answer occasional questions from DAIS Legal Advocates or be on our attorney list that is offered to clients when the legal help they need goes beyond what a DAIS Legal Advocate can offer. DAIS does not refer clients to specific attorneys, but provides the list to clients who wish to find an attorney that may help with a specific legal issue. DAIS has a great need for attorneys who are willing to provide sliding-scale or pro bono legal services to victims who need legal representation and advice in family law and restraining order cases. DAIS also needs attorneys who are willing to assist victims with small claims, eviction, housing discrimination, immigration, and criminal cases on a pro bono or sliding-scale basis as well. DAIS Legal Advocates can be available to the client and the attorney throughout the case for support if necessary.

46. Operation Fresh Start **

Jim Sanders, Deputy Director

1925 Winnebago St.

Madison, WI 53704

(608) 244-4721

www.operationfreshstart.org

Operation Fresh Start is a non-profit, comprehensive employment and training organization serving low-income young people, ages 16-25, in Dane County. The majority of OFS participants are unemployed high school drop-outs who have multiple barriers to success, including records of juvenile or adult offense, problems with substance abuse, behavioral disorders, and mental illness. A few OFS participants a year may need help with juvenile or adult court issues.

47. Options in Community Living, Inc. **

Kim Turner, Executive Director

22 N. Second St.

Madison, WI 53704

(608) 249-1585

kturner@optionsmadison.com

www.optionsmadison.com

Options provides support services to adults with developmental disabilities who live in their own homes in the Madison area. Clients sometimes need legal services to help with issues of housing discrimination, or other housing related issues (failure to return security deposits, etc.). Options occasionally needs legal assistance to establish guardianship in a timely manner when the county is not responding rapidly enough and when a family has no funds to hire an attorney. Options has paid for this type of assistance, sometimes offered at a lower rate, on behalf of people they support. As an organization, Options needs consultation on employment issues and assistance with occasional contract questions such as business leases.

48. OutReach, Inc. **

Harry Straetz, Program Director
600 Williamson St., Suite P-1
Madison, WI 53703
(608) 255-8582
info@lgbtoutreach.org
www.lgbtoutreach.org

OutReach, Inc. is dedicated to positive change for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities by providing services that nurture, strengthen, and celebrate our communities; educate and inform the public and ourselves; and advocate for social justice. OutReach anticipates a need for pro bono help in about 12 cases a year for agency needs (issues specific to non-profits), and individual client needs, including discrimination and family law issues relating to LGBT families.

49. Porchlight, Inc.

Karla Jameson, Director of Services
306 North Brooks St.
Madison, WI 53715
(608) 257-2534
fax: (608) 257-2507
kjameson@porchlightinc.org

The mission of Porchlight, Inc. is to provide temporary shelter, support services, and ultimately permanent housing for people who are homeless, while vigorously promoting collaboration with community providers to reduce the homeless population in Madison. Porchlight, Inc. (formerly Transitional Housing, Inc.) served 12,700 people in 2008, and its shelter currently houses 100 people each night. Porchlight, Inc. has attorneys from Legal Action come to screen people on a fairly regular basis, but there is additional need for pro bono attorneys, especially for things LAW can't do, including class actions and conditions of homelessness issues. In addition, homeless people need a legal voice in dealing with government benefits for which they are no longer "entitled", such as SSI/SSDI and programs such as the Expedited Food Stamp program. For these types of problems caseworkers need to be contacted to get things moved along.

50. Prevent Child Abuse Wisconsin

211 S Paterson St # 250
Madison, WI 53703-4537
608-256-3374
608-256-3378 (fax)
1-800-CHILDREN
pcaw@cssw.org

Prevent Child Abuse Wisconsin (PCAW) is a statewide prevention effort that aims to stop child abuse and neglect before it occurs. PCAW offers training for professionals who are mandated reporters and fatherhood programming. The mission of PCAW is to build community resources, provide training, increase public awareness, and strengthen child abuse prevention efforts in Wisconsin. PCAW receives inquiries from families looking for legal information regarding child abuse, grandparent rights and custody issues, often during a divorce. Pro bono assistance would be helpful with these situations and PCAW anticipates about 3-6 cases each year in Dane County.

TRC is the primary resource center for low-income tenants who are denied their legal rights or threatened with the loss of their housing. TRC facilitates a number of programs, including the TRC Housing Counseling Office at 1202 Williamson St., the Mediation Program in Dane County Small Claims Court (used to reach agreements between landlords and tenants and to prevent evictions) and the Housing Help Desk, which helps people who are in search of affordable housing, homeless persons and persons in danger of being homeless, women fleeing abuse situations, and people with mental disabilities, as well as others. The TRC needs assistance with tenants fighting illegal evictions that can result in the loss of Section 8 vouchers, tenants forced to leave housing due to undisclosed health and safety hazards, and tenants forcibly evicted for retaliatory reasons. Many cases involve mandatory double damages and attorney fee awards under Wisconsin Law.

WCCN is a non-profit charitable organization. It's primary program a micro-credit loan program, the NICA Fund. Through the NICA fund, WCCN members invest (a minimum of $2000) and are paid interest at a 0-6% rate. WCCN loans the money to micro-credit organizations (MCOs) in Nicaragua. The MCOs then loan the money to individuals who typically do not qualify for traditional credit. WCCN seeks an attorney or attorneys who can advise the organization on securities regulations outside of Wisconsin. We are exempt from registration in Wisconsin due to the nature of our organization. However, there are other states that require that we register. Those registrations require an opinion of counsel regarding the legal integrity of the offering. This is likely to be an occasional need as most states have self executing or minimal notice exemptions for which WCCN qualifies.
